

Drop Into The Pit

Tryhardninja

In a children's pizzeria in the shadows
Lit by glowing, old arcade screens and their panels
Where an evil man sets futures to unravel
They're so fragile, oh
Their fates play out on repeat, and you're invited
To participate, it's alright to be frightened
Interactive feels so real to his delight, and You've been sighted, run and hide then

You go, try to escape, try to escape
He follows you home
Already too late (Once you)

Drop into the pit of nothin'
Nothing but despair
Welcome to the hole where
Nothin' but agony is there
Time has managed to erase
All but remnants of the pain
Now, drop into the pit
And nothin' (Nothin')
Will ever be the same

Now you wanna just forget it, so you lay low
But there evil sits across your dinner table
Try to save yourself and family if you're able
No halo, the game's fatal
The sign said "Do not use," you didn't listen
Now walk inside the shoes of missin' children
The mask is after you and it's relentless

(Once you)

Drop into the pit of nothin'
Nothin' but despair
Welcome to the hole where
Nothin' but agony is there
Time has managed to erase
All but remnants of the pain
Now, drop into the pit
And nothin' (Nothin')
Will ever be the same

We need you, a rescue
We've waited for too long
It's too late, in too deep
You're right where you belong
La-la-la, la-la-la-la-la
In this pain, here with us

('Cause you)

Drop into the pit of nothin', nothin' but despair
Welcome to the hole where nothin'

Drop into the pit of nothin'
Nothin' but despair
Welcome to the hole where

Nothin' but agony is there
Time has managed to erase
All but remnants of the pain
Now, drop into the pit
And nothin' (Nothin')
Will ever be the same

(Drop, drop, drop, drop into the-)
(Drop, drop, drop, drop into the pit)
(Drop, drop, drop, drop, drop into the-)
Nothin' will ever be the same
