

Freddy's Comes to Minecraft

Tryhardninja

Down in the mine minin' for diamonds
The light doesn't shine very far hard to see
What could be lurking in the shadows
I'm frightened every time to find out what it could be

But nothing could have prepared me
A whole new level of scary
Manifesting in front of my eyes
Out of the darkness walking
A different dimention pouring
Monsters out of this world, into mine

Some kind of terror, keeps following me
Some kind of nightmares, someplace that they shouldn't be
My world consumed by tormented souls in their masks
The day that Freddy's, Freddy's, Fre-, Freddy's comes to Minecraft

Animatronic animals filled with twisted ghosts
They don't belong but they stole my home
My sanctuary made of boxes and stone
Now roamed by foxes, bears and broken down souls

Their hunger not satiating
All of my hearts are draining
As I struggle to outrun their bite
Out of the darkness walking
A different dimention pouring
Monsters out of this world, into mine

Some kind of terror, keeps following me
Some kind of nightmares, someplace that they shouldn't be
My world consumed by tormented souls in their masks
The day that Freddy's, Freddy's, Fre-, Freddy's comes to Minecraft

I play their game and armor up, armor up
I craft my blade and sharpen up, sharpen up
They try to scare me but it's not enough, not enough
For me to run and hide
And so I stand and fight!

Some kind of terror, keeps following me
Some kind of nightmares, someplace that they shouldn't be
My world consumed by tormented souls in their masks
The day that Freddy's, Freddy's, Fre-, Freddy's (Yeah)

Some kind of terror, keeps following me
Some kind of nightmares, someplace that they shouldn't be
My world consumed by tormented souls in their masks
The day that Freddy's, Freddy's, Fre-, Freddy's comes to Minecraft
