

Impossible War

Tryhardninja

Infinity is threatened on their watch
Reality will bend and break
If they don't take a stand

'Cause they're the only ones, only ones, who
Can take up arms, take up arms, find
Strength where there's none, where there's none
The only ones who can stand up
Rise up above

The only ones who can prepare for unstoppable
Hopeless, impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Together they're the arsenal
Fighting an impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)

When despair spreads like a veil of smoke
They're carrying the light
That shines with hope
They're the only ones, only ones

'Cause they're the only ones, only ones, who
Will face it and never run, find
Faith where there's none, where there's none
The only ones who can lift us
Up after the fall

The only ones who can prepare for unstoppable
Hopeless, impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Together they're the arsenal
Fighting an impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)

Iron strong, when they're together, hit like a hammer
Ready for war, screaming like thunder, strike like a panther
Iron strong when they're together, hit like a hammer
Ready for war, ready for war

It's a war for infinity, friends becoming enemies
Outside your periphery grip is getting slippery
Doubts I keep a litany, kids they lying nittany
Getting me all fidgety, spinning like a rotisserie
Feeling so ill physically, cowards moving so wickedly
This is the final symphony, movement is too quick and we Sick of the Pyrrhic victories, chemistry meets synergy
In the pursuit of liberty, we're going down in history

Prepare for unstoppable
Hopeless, impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Together they're the arsenal
Fighting an impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)

The only ones who can prepare for unstoppable
Hopeless, impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Together they're the arsenal
Fighting an impossible war (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
