

In My Hands

Tryhardninja

Now that I have fallen down
I hold the power to erase
Many souls here undergroun-un-und
The same souls I can care to save
I'm beeing pulled to the left
Pulled to the right
Darkness and merc-eey
Bo-oth wanna see
Me-ee on their side
But wich one will guide me?

I have their souls in my hands
In my hands
In my hands
But do I want violence to grow
In my hands
In my hands
Everyday I feel the darkness
Pushing me to strike them all down when

I have their souls in my hands
I feel my conscience reaching out
So every battle is a te-e-e-est
Is there love
Is there love
Is there love
In my-har-r-r-art
Will it choke their final breaths
Their breaths

I have their souls in my hands
In my hands in my hands
But do I want violence to grow
In my hands in my hands
Every fight I'm hearing mercy
Begging me to spare their li-ives when

I have their souls in my hands
I can pick up the pieces
Bring them with me to the light
Or I can pick up the piece-e-es
And throw them to the side
Tear them down with one strike

I have their souls in my hands
In my hands in my hands
But do I want violence to grow
In my hands in my hands
Everyday I feel the darkness
Pushing me to strike them all down when

I have their souls in my hands
Is my frisk time writing subtitles and hope you enjoy the song
