

In The Ruins

Tryhardninja

I'm walking the edge, safety net up in flames
'Cause you know that danger knows me by my name
No stories of ghosts ever kept me away from a promise made
You know me well enough to know I'm not scared of diving in Alone, into the deep unknown, haven't changed since we were kids
I'm used to getting by with scars, worn like badges on my skin
So you know how hard it's been

To tell you I need your help, to show you I'm not well
I bit off more than I can ever chew, can you

Find me in the ruins
Among the ashes of abandoned souls
Broken bones and bruises
Beneath this house of cards that had to fall
Find me in the ruins
I need you to know this time I couldn't do it
You're my only hope, find me in the-

I'm crawlin' in darkness, afraid of the cold
The heartless metal restricting my soul
I've never felt farther away from my home
And I lose control

It's getting hard to breathe as my vision slowly cracks
Forced to face my nightmares that form behind the mask
Reality, my sanity, detached and collapsed
Is that you here at last? (Set me free)

To tell you I need your help, to show you I'm not well
I bit off more than I can ever chew, can you

Find me in the ruins
Among the ashes of abandoned souls
Broken bones and bruises
Beneath this house of cards that had to fall
Find me in the ruins
I need you to know this time I couldn't do it
You're my only hope, find me in the-
