

Last Ones Up

Don't you know you're dealing with the...

Apex

Predators, in the presence of greatness
Legend status and you're still on the waitlist
It's a battle royale
And we're the last ones up
Last ones up
'Cause we're Apex
Predators, in the presence of greatness
Heroes dropping down a tale for the ages
It's a battle royale
And we're the last ones up
Last ones up

Last ones up, run and gun, run and gun
Scoping in, you're one and done, one and done
Got your head, shoulda ducked, shoulda ducked
Find the path, to the front, to the front
By stepping over your fallen teammates
My team is planning on winning today
Bloodhounds let loose on the map, hunger games
Heroes with octane, gracing their veins
Movin' like a wraith
All as one, engage
You're one the wrong side of a gas grenade
Your squad losing your basing
We're beasting this hunt on the daily
Vanishing act on your HP
That gold crown for you is a daydream
A mirage, 'cause you're dealing with the...

Apex

Predators, in the presence of greatness
Legend status and you're still on the waitlist
It's a battle royale
And we're the last ones up
Last ones up
'Cause we're Apex

Last ones up

Lock it, load it, loot it
Lock it, load it, loot it
Lock it, load it, loot it
Now, let's go and do this
Everybody wants us dead
Our banners all around the map
I'm not one for losing
So these wins are really 'bout to stack
Flow so sick they should call me caustic
Got a grenade, better duck when I toss it
I don't like flossing, that is exhausting
Challenging, me you'll end up in a coffin

Got all the mods, got a dope squad
I don't like cheaters, don't mess with them frauds
Put up or shut up, that's skill for the bills
And I'm giving you chills, you can't mess with a god
Ooh, this is a battle royale
Looting and shooting, I'm taking them down
Enemies everywhere, go look around
I am the champion taking the crown
Lock it, load it, loot it
Lock it, load it, loot it
Lock it, load it, loot it
Now, let's go and do this
High octane when I'm playing the game
Running and gunning, I'm here for fame
Adrenaline pumping, it's right in my veins
Every win that I get, it's a rush to my brain
Enough of you lames, I'm bringing the pain
I keep a count of the foes that I've slain
I am unstoppable, how is it possible
I don't fear death so I'm never afraid

'Cause we're Apex
Predators, in the presence of greatness
Legend status and you're still on the waitlist
It's a battle royale
And we're the last ones up
Last ones up
'Cause we're Apex
Predators, in the presence of greatness
Heroes dropping down a tale for the ages
It's a battle royale
