

Leave Me Alone

Tryhardninja

Hello neighbor, hello stranger
This is your only disclaimer
If you choose to trespass here
Then you should know to beware
'Cause your life maybe in danger

I remember

I was really hoping you would pass me
But you stopped and then started unpacking
Couldn't understand then what was happening
Just what kind of hell the devil dragged in

Haven't had a minute to myself, no
Since you moved and barged in through my front door
If I were you I would be more careful
'Cause you just might get everything you came for

Go
Turn around, nice to see ya
But I need privacy
I gotta get you the hell out of my home

Don't you dare touch my keys
We are way passed niceties here
And I want you to leave me alone

And I know how all this must look
But you can't go back once you know
Because the hidden truth you're dying to find
Might be the thing you end up dying for

Listen, I'm not normal and I know this
But just keep your nose out of my business
You're the one determined to be lawless
Say I'm wrong but look at your own choices

Why are you creepin' around my bedroom?
Taking stuff, now I'm in a bad mood
Justified to leave you with a head wound
And dig a grave for you inside the next room

Go
Turn around, nice to see ya
But I need privacy
I gotta get you the hell out of my home

Don't you dare touch my keys
We are way passed niceties here
And I want you to leave me alone

And I know how all this must look
But you can't go back once you know
Because the hidden truth you're dying to find
Might be the thing you end up dying for

OK

I might be crazy but there's reasons
I don't talk much
Boardin' up all of my doors then lay some traps
To keep you stuck
You're in a rut
Messin' with me was enough
Feelin' like your time is up
I'm callin' your bluff
Get the heck out of my house, I'm insane
And you're testin' your luck
AHHHHH!

Since when did decency and privacy
Go down the drain?
Why is my neighbor tryin' to find out
What's inside my brain?
I'll learn your everyday move
Your efforts are in vain
We aren't the same, my dirty secrets
Will not ever be obtained

You're never gonna get to sneak by me
Was that a footstep I heard?
Boy you better go flee!
Think you can beat me in a foot race?
Then we gon' see
Leave me alone, all I wanna do is watch TV!

So go ahead, you know what happens
If I catch you snoopin'
So nice to meet you
It's time to get movin'
You've been a headache ever
Since you moved in!
Never thought neighbors could be
Such a nuisance

GRR!
Goodbye neighbor
It was nice knowin' ya
You wanna see what's in my basement?
Well ha ha, I'm not showin' ya
