

Look At Me Now

Tryhardninja

The children gather 'round if they could only know
The nightmares that exist behind the happy show
I used to be just like them
A smile across my face
Until this place of innocence
Transformed into my cage

Look at me now!
Prisoner inside of the body I possess
Look at me now!
Teaming with power I will tear into your flesh
Forever walk the darkness chained
Filled with growing rage
Look at me now!
I'm just like you
Both trapped with no hope to escape!
Look at me now!

Call me bitter
Or a killer
And anything else that you want to
'Cause I lived too long unforgiven
And said goodbye to my heaven
In the darkness I have risen
I'm content to be the villain
Call me twisted
Or a sinner
Demon, monster, evil it's all true!
'Cause when you look at me
All you see is a dangerous machine
Who I am to argue with it?
Here comes the killing spree!

Look at me now!
Prisoner inside of the body I possess
Look at me now!
Teaming with power I will tear into your flesh
Forever walk the darkness chained
Filled with growing rage
Look at me now!
I'm just like you
Both trapped with no hope to escape!
Look at me now!

I am two sides of a face
And I don't feel that I can ever leave this place
With any moment I'm a child
Or a demon filled with rage
The paths are still the same
Our paths are still the same!

Look at me now!
Prisoner inside of the body I possess
Look at me now!
Teaming with power I will tear into your flesh
Forever walk the darkness chained
Filled with growing rage

Look at me now!
I'm just like you
Both trapped with no hope to escape!
Look at me now!
