

Mercy Or Genocide

Tryhardninja

A stranger in their home
Will you honor their spirits or become the judge, the jury and the executioner all in one?

Mercy or genocide
Violence or love
Which do you decide?
Mercy or genocide
Their fates ready to be sealed

You've taken the fall, decisions take tolls
Waiting hearts that need your help are trapped underground
The monsters abound
But will you spare their souls or drag them with you into hell?
Mercy or genocide
Mercy or genocide

The climb is long
And to the top determination guides your will
But can you rise up with your friends
Or their own blood will you spill?

Mercy or genocide
Violence or love
Which do you decide?
Mercy or genocide
Their fates ready to be sealed

You've taken the fall, decisions take tolls
Waiting hearts that need your help are trapped underground
The monsters abound
But will you spare their souls or drag them with you into hell?
Mercy or genocide
Mercy or genocide

"It doesn't have to be dangerous
Out there is too treacherous
You are home" is what she said
"Please spare, don't be murderous
Could be just the two of us"
Her voice echoes through your head

You've taken the fall, decisions take tolls
Waiting hearts that need your help are trapped underground
The monsters abound
But will you spare their souls or drag them with you into hell?
Mercy or genocide
Which do you decide?
Mercy or genocide
Which do you decide?
