

No Rest

Tryhardninja

You sleep with one eye open now
Only way that you know how
When every night could be your last
Sweet dreams visit you no more
They're scared of nightmares at your door
When you become the pray
Then you understand

There's no rest
No rest, no rest
No rest for the hunted
There's no rest
No rest, no rest
No rest for the hunted

After the end of the world
New life for every boy and girl
Everyday on the run, yeah
Monsters made of skin and bone
Who look like someone you know
Got a taste for your blood
So let the hunt begin

There's no rest
No rest, no rest
No rest for the hunted
There's no rest
There's no rest
No rest, no rest
No rest for the hunted
There's no rest, no rest

There's no quiet in the ocean deep
When the sharks come out to feed
There's no quiet in the ocean deep
When the sharks come out to feed

There's no quiet in the ocean deep
When the sharks come out to feed
There's no quiet
There's no quiet

There's no rest
No rest, no rest
No rest for the hunted
There's no rest
There's no rest
No rest, no rest
No rest for the hunted
No rest, no rest
No rest, no rest for the hunted
No rest, no rest
No rest for the hunted
