

Noclip, broken
My reality divides
My life is frozen, stolen
In the Backrooms here tonight

This maze seems to go on for centuries
Fluorescent lit rooms are all that I see
Anxiety's getting the best of me
Uncanny facade here is stressing me
Am I in this place temporarily?
Or have I become just a memory
Slipped out of time accidentally
Now I'm all alone with an enemy, yeah

Noclip, broken
My reality divides
My life is frozen, stolen
In the Backrooms here tonight
In my limitless tomb
In the Backrooms
In my limitless tomb
In the Backrooms, yeah

Copy paste empty rooms, span for days
Repeating repeating there's no escape
Repeating repeating there's no escape
Repeating repeating there's no escape
Running and spiraling, getting chased
Something else here and I feel like prey
Matter of time until something breaks
Repeating repeating until I break
Oh, welcome to my anxiety
Oh, it's building a home inside of me
Oh, it puts up its walls and I can't leave
So lost and alone

Noclip, broken
My reality divides
My life is frozen, stolen
In the Backrooms here tonight
Noclip, broken
My reality divides
My life is frozen, stolen
In the Backrooms here tonight
In my limitless tomb
In the Backrooms
In my limitless tomb
In the Backrooms, yeah
