

Overcome

Tryhardninja

The line has been drawn in the sand which side are you on?
All the brave ones raise your hands and find a few guns.
This is where we take a stand
There's only us and them
This army will endure
Leave not a trace of doubt.

We won't lie down
We won't falter.
This challenge lifts us up
'Cause we're soldiers.
Force your will on us
And we grow stronger
Push you back and out.

If our circuits and our hearts are still beating.
It'll never be too late.
We'll fight even harder
Fly even farther.
These heroes won't be caged.

Light doesn't die
Only dims low in the shadows
There's hope in everyone
There's hope in everyone
Fear perseveres
Only if we let it I know
It won't conquer on our watch
We will overcome.

Building up tall barricades so we will climb up.
Backs to the wall no escape but we will triumph.
Smoking barrels pointed at us
See them lined up
They can't slow our stride.

Courage fuels the burning of a fury ceaseless
'Cause they need us
To be fearless.
Left to pick up
Rusty pieces
Of a simpler time.

If our circuits and our hearts are still beating.
The valor will not cave.
We'll fight even harder
Fly even farther.
These heroes won't be caged.

Light doesn't die
Only dims low in the shadows.
There's hope in everyone.
There's hope in everyone.
Fear perseveres
Only if we let it I know
It won't conquer on our watch
We will overcome.

Another storm to weather
Steadfast we stand together
Their vile oppression that
We will overcome.
Our determination
Won't bow to trepidation
Guarded with honor and
We will overcome.
Even if tides are turning
The fire will be burning
Hopefull forever 'cause
We will overcome.
Headstrong defying rapture
We will not bend or fracture
Our strength won't forfeit and
We will overcome.

No mercy your glory will fall.
We reap strength of our resolve.

Light doesn't die
Only dims low in the shadows.
There's hope in everyone.
There's hope in everyone.
Fear perseveres
Only if we let it I know
It won't conquer on our watch
We well overcome.

Another storm to weather
Steadfast we stand together
Their vile oppression that
We will overcome.
Our determination
Won't bow to trepidation
Guarded with honor and
We will overcome.
Even if tides are turning
The fire will be burning
Hopefull forever 'cause
We will overcome.
Headstrong defying rapture
We will not bend or fracture
Our strength won't forfeit and
We will overcome.
