

Salvaged Rage

Tryhardninja

Here we are again
Meeting face-to-face
Don't avert your eyes
Take your final breath
Live through all my pain
In your final night

Abandoned, forgotten, awakened tonight
I'm salvaged and broken and raging inside
Scrapped into pieces like breaking a mind (Mind, mind, mind)

My salvaged heart, my salvaged life
Now disassembled, mangled halves
The decades fade, the blueprints die
With my ambitions all I have
My salvaged rage, my salvaged rage to end you

There you go again, digging up the past
Watch your every step
It's a dangerous game when you go around waking up the dead

Abandoned, forgotten, restored for tonight
And dying to make up for all the lost time
When I'm done, yeah, nobody leaves here alive ('Live, 'live, 'live)

My salvaged heart, my salvaged life
Now disassembled, mangled halves
The decades fade, the blueprints die
With my ambitions all I have
My salvaged rage, my salvaged rage to end you

My salvaged rage, my salvaged rage to end you
