

Spend The Night

Tryhardninja

So you're back here now for one more time
Where nightmares want you to spend the night (Oh, oh)
Oh, oh, let's bring it back another round
Oh, oh, their purple eyes are on the prowl
Oh, oh, new setting and the body count
Oh, oh, have both grown so much bigger now

A new chapter, it is taking shape
Under shadows with the ghost parade

Spend the night at the Pizzaplex
And survive all the murderous tech
Run and hide, stay a step ahead
Or you might end up fallin' dead, spend the night!
Eyes watching you where you go (Spend the night)
You can't escape the control (They will rise)
Always come back for your soul (They're alive!)
Run and hide, spend the night!

Dark disbands the sun and sanity
Resurrected, killer savagery (Oh, oh)
Oh, oh, pursuing you with no remorse
Oh, oh, no time to falter, stay the course
Oh, oh, so don't think twice and leave it scorched
Oh, oh, don't think twice and leave it scorched

Always come back for your soul (They're alive!)
Run and hide, spend the night!
Spend the night, spend the night

Bright lights disguise events, oh, so bizarre
Come try and find this evil beating heart
Down, down, down, down
The show's about to start, you're a superstar, oh!

Spend the night at the Pizzaplex
