The Dancing Demon

Tryhardninja

Back to where you used to work and drew all night and day
Fun afternoons with cute cartoons a chipper happy face
Whatever your imagination wants to crystallize
Put the pen to paper it might just come to life

Please pardon our appearance we're improving don't you know?
And these old halls began to fall so long before you showed
Now won't you be a pal and grab a few things that we need
With your dedication we'll kick start this machine

Now you woke the dancing demon
You won't last through this evening
You woke the dancing demon
You are never leaving

There are parts to a machine go find them where they lay
One by one they power up the tools of your dismay
Run and hide in case the dancing demon comes to play
Swinging to a melody as your life fades away

Bear witness to your horned creation as he follows you
There's snapping and toe tapping in the old projector room
The tension levels rising high like pressure in a gauge
Because the moving pictures are coming out their frames

So grab an axe and take a swing the fun has now begun
Oh no my friend it's not the end we're just on chapter 1
'Cause our creator lied to us the sickness replicates
Now you know what it's like to be the one betrayed

Now you woke the dancing demon
You won't last through this evening
You woke the dancing demon
You are never leaving

There are parts to a machine go find them where they lay
One by one they power up the tools of your dismay
Run and hide in case the dancing demon comes to play
Swinging to a melody as your life fades away

Your time has passed now we are in control
Were once director now you're in a horror show
When you play god reap what you sow
Only gets darker the further you go
Powered up started the ink let it flow

Now you woke the dancing demon
You woke the dancing demon
You woke the dancing demon
Your life fades away

There are parts to a machine go find them where they lay
One by one they power up the tools of your dismay
Run and hide in case the dancing demon comes to play
Swinging to a melody as your life fades away
