

The Prey

Tryhardninja

Woke up
In a simulation
Explore
Thought the broken station.
Where we
Test abominations
Now I'm trapped with the infestation
How can I ever defeat
The things that I can't see?
They Hide
Mimicing Themselves
Right in front of me

Hold on
Just to survive
Fight back
The Alien life
Play a Dangerous game
The Hunter and The Prey
Such A
Long way from home
Paranoid I'm never alone
Labyrinth in Space
The Hunter and The Prey

Escape
From this research Madness.
Scavenge Until there's access granted
Blat the
Phantoms that were captives
I solve new problems I've adapted
And I know
My chances are slim
To Ever Get Away
Still I fight
Nightmares come to life
For the human race

Hold on
Just to survive
Fight back
The Alien life
Play a Dangerous game
The Hunter and The Prey
Such A
Long way from home
Paranoid I'm never alone
Labyrinth in Space
The Hunter and The Prey

Awake But something doesn't seem right
A little off but maybe hopping in my routine might get the day going
Check the emails odd feeling is growing
It's in the details

Burning in my gut but there's worke to do
Firt day and to lurk's only hurting you

Nueromod is odd and disturbing true
But a burden on your title's not worth it move

To a room where the others are observing you
Doing tests and the tasks are alerting you
Like what is this for?
And before you can get an answer you see another man rush the door

And wake
What is this another take?
Was I dreaming?
Shudder at the other's fate and the email's telling me to leave now!
It's taking everything within me not to freak out!
