

There Once Was A Wolf

Tryhardninja

Once there was a poor soul
Trapped in the machine
Caged just like an animal
In a twisted dream
Now listen boy
Save your strength or you are done done done done
The danger's always too close
Grab the pieces and run run run run
It's how the story goes

There once was a lone wolf
A wolf with no pack
Surviving in darkness
As each dark day passed
No longer the hunter
He's hunted like prey
And the demon still stalks him
To this very day
There once was a wolf oh yeah
There once was a wolf woah

In the studio where
Nightmares never pause
He searches for answers
About who he once was
For every little piece he risks his hide hide hide hide
As the puzzle slowly shapes
Only taking refuge when his life's
Threatened by the dark embrace

There once was a lone wolf
A wolf with no pack
Surviving in darkness
As each dark day passed
No longer the hunter
He's hunted like prey
And the demon still stalks him
To this very day
There once was a wolf oh yeah
There once was a wolf woah

Once there was a poor soul
Trapped in the machine

There once was a lone wolf
A wolf with no pack
Surviving in darkness
As each dark day passed
No longer the hunter
He's hunted like prey
And the demon still stalks him
To this very day
There once was a wolf oh yeah
There once was a wolf woah
