

Time Will Wait

Tryhardninja

A strange strange strange new gift to rewrite the past
Suddenly is in your grasp
Your hands hands hands are clenched around memories
You are desperate to get back

You try to hold the sands of time
Time to make a change and hit rewind
Wind up like a falling butterfly
Flying through a rolling storm

Pushing back a raging sea
Time will wait for no one
Time will wait for no one
The waves will reach the shore
Landing punches on the breeze
Time will wait for no one
Time will wait for no one
Unbruised the wind will soar

You run run run through space between photographs
Looking for a happy end
Spill spill spill your heart across all of time
You end up where you began

You try to hold the sands of time
Time to make a change and hit rewind
Wind up like a falling butterfly
Flying through a rolling storm

Pushing back a raging sea
Time will wait for no one
Time will wait for no one
The waves will reach the shore
Landing punches on the breeze
Time will wait for no one
Time will wait for no one
Unbruised the wind will soar

The longer you try to hold on
You learn to let go
Let go
The longer you try to hold on
You learn to let go
Let go

Pushing back a raging sea
Time will wait for no one
Time will wait for no one
The waves will reach the shore
Landing punches on the breeze
Time will wait for no one
Time will wait for no one
Unbruised the wind will soar

Time will wait for no one
Time will wait for no one
Time won't wait
