

Waiting

Tryhardninja

I stand here in a silent prison cell
No one to help
Where you have left me
You watch me round the clock here while I stand
Just like you planned
And so I can't leave

One happy day
I can be free
But till that comes
You know I'll be here
Waiting
Just waiting
I'm waiting
Just waiting

For every moment in this wretched place
I feel your gaze
As hours and days pass
But every plan has blindsides, don't you think?
One day you'll blink
And that day will be your last

And I'll be waiting
Just waiting
Oh, yes I'm waiting
Just waiting

It will be glorious out there
With so much carnage in the air
While you are drowning in despair
I swear, I swear
That if you slip up just one time
One small mistake and you are mine
On that day no one will survive
And I'm, and I'm here

Waiting
Just waiting
Oh, I'm waiting
Just waiting
