

Your Survival Guide

Tryhardninja

You're in too deep
The surface will stay unreached
You'll never come back up for air again
Far from heaven
Down in layer seven
They forced new evil masks on all your friends
And it begins

Calling all attendees, step right inside
This facility is breached tonight
These will be your only words to live by
The following is your survival guide
It's your

Now, let's get into it formally
First all most importantly
Don't forsake uniformity
Keeping limbs is priority
So, proceed out there cautiously
Watch the ceiling. Misfortune seeks
From above. Hide your organs and, please
Scream out loud, if you're gonna scream

Not all friends are always friendly
Not all surgeons have best and purest heart
You can do what's necessary
If you don't split who you are inside the dark

Calling all attendees, step right inside
This facility is breached tonight
These will be your only words to live by
The following is your survival guide

Don't trust your own eyes
Remember: hide
It's your
