

Nothing Left To Say

TSA

Do not to disturb the silence, here we lie
Watching our cigarettes glow in darkness
Like our love burning out & dying
I reach out to touch you,
But you are as cold as ice

There is nothing left to say
There is nothing left to give you!

Thinking of yesterday we were one
Coming together lost in smoke & dreams
Warm & safe, we travelled to the stars
But love died along the way
With the life of our unborn child!

Go now leave me with my thoughts & memories,
The ones before we tortured each other.
The ones before the tears & the smoke,
Choked our kisses & our dreams.

Leave me - go!
