

I can't see through the rain
I'm feeling stuck in the game
I'm not trying to change
I can't take all the blame
So that's always the same
I can't do shit on my own
Ain't gonna pick up the phone
Don't wanna see anyone
Yet I feel so alone
And I've been numb for so long

See, I've been numb for too long
Feeling so out of my place
Desperately trying to feel a little something
So insecure I'm giving in
And I sing along to sad songs
And think that I just don't belong

Over and over again
I swear everyday feels the same
The pattern repeats and it shows
How this night is gonna end
Poisoned and sad and addicted
Alone, I'm stressed out and tired
The cycle repeats and I know
How my life has got to end

I can't see through the rain
I'm feeling stuck in the game
I'm not trying to change
I can't take all the blame
So that's always the same
I can't do shit on my own
Ain't gonna pick up the phone
Don't wanna see anyone
Yet I feel so alone
And I've been numb for so long

Why am I out of my place
I try to feel but nothing's real
I think that I might just give in
Why am I out of my place
I try to feel but nothing's real
I sing along to sad songs
And think that I just don't belong

I can't see through the rain
I'm feeling stuck in the game
I'm not trying to change
I can't take all the blame
So that's always the same
I'm not trying to change
So that's always the same
I'm not trying to change
