(I know your kind, how you lie like that
I know you're mine when you bite it like that
I know you're mine when you put it like that
Guess you was right when you put it like that
I know now
I get the point, I hear you loud and clear
All this time I've been playin' your side
I could have done better shit with my life)

I'm a dog, you a dog too
And I done seen you dog niggas cause they dogged you
I think you'd probably let it fall if I don't fall through
Go snap filter with your friend cause she a dog too
You think it's all me but shit I swear it's all you
Heard a couple lies got back, them shits all true
Hov made song cry when he couldn't
And I can't so fuck it, shit, I'd rather make a song too
Need someone to shower with, watch Power with
I need that real shit, they call that empowerment
Shit we don't even shower when we shower
I think she fuck with me cause I devour it
Ain't met a badder bitch in a minute
Reputation in the gutter, I can put it Guinness
It's record setting how I fuck her
I can switch up her image, flip her swag
Put it in her bag and get a bag
And I'll come and see you for once
You got your own shit, you moving up
Backshots got you scooting up
Trust you and I never know how to trust
You ain't never doing much, that why I fuck with you
Random texts you remind me that I'm stuck with you
Like strippers, I don't mind hitting Lust with you
Always turn to fucking when I fuss with you
Another argument started from those trust issues

(Come and see me for once
Come and see me for once
You don't ever come to me, yeah
You don't ever come, why you never come?
Will you ever come?
Come and see me for once
Come and see me for once
Why you never come to me, no?
Why you never come to me?
Why you never come to me, no?)

By why the topic ain't never about how I curve bitches
And why you always group chatting with them bird bitches
One minute you screamin' you good and you stuck with me
The ones tellin' will be the bitches that will fuck with me
And Mommy say she pray for you, she a keeper so I kept her
Kinda felt like forever when I met her we ain't together
We just rock hard like she feel for me
And she ain't never gotta ask 'Would you kill for me?'
They say it's money over bitches but she figured that
So when I'm on that bag chase, she don't get in to that

Sleeping over but never sleep, you remember that?
I fucked up a whole flip, you helped me get it back

(I come first, you come on time
I reverse, you rewind, do it again
Stuck in time, do it again)

I dive in but with permission, that pole in ya water. Nigga never been fishin
That Boosie Badazz type of independent and on the lowest of keys I think you into women
We could explore some, we had them blunt ciphers popping like 4 something
Had you holding your ankles, look like you tore something
Stuck in that moment when that trap don't matter
Since she gave me that pussy, think that ass getting fatter
Old DMX, comfortable now when she see her ex, that's how she should be
If I wasn't up chasing this paper think where we would be Better reflection like you a good me
Ain't a player, I just crush a lot
Ain't seen you in a minute, when I do you still cum a lot
Middle of the summer hot I never really want a lot
You made me want to stop
I think I want to stop

(Wait, wait, wait, wait
Wait, wait, wait
For you, you, you, you
You, you
Never, never too late, late, late, late
Late, late, late
Fall through, through, through, through
It's 2 A.M., it's 2 A.M. and I'm on you, you, you, you
One of your girls on the side like that
I know your kind, how you lie like that
I know you're mine when you bite it like that
I know you're mine when you put it like that
Guess you was right when you put it like that
I know now)
