Realer than most
I watched the realest OGs get turned into ghosts
I watched homies start to change, shit hurt the most
I made it to the TV screen while they hog the remote
I'm hard to provoke
Your homie last tape was weak, it was hard to promote
And why you tryna ride my wave when you hardly could float?
Your girl whine on me like a carnival float
I rather approach all of my situations strapped with a clear mind
Fuck that, I did verses all in my spare time
Trust that I get it first always in real times
Kill mine, they carry more weight than a steel mine
Nothing mattered but money and fashion
Niggas ain't the same in person, that's part of their actin'
If you wasn't posin' for 'Gram this shit never would happen
Only catch me posted with the fam, make it part of my caption

Beast, beast
Finally found the dog in me
Finally got off the leash
Why they keep callin' me?
Beast, beast
Finally found the dog in me
Finally got off the leash
Why they keep callin' me?

Blunt, Backwood, speedin', Moncler, switch seasons
Fuck it up and we leavin', ate her pussy, she vegan
Double work with that frying pan, new watch, new time span
I'on hate, just grind, fam, LA, bitch, from LeBron land
All head, won't wife, ever said I ain't like her
Last bitch did fake checks, new bitch, she a swiper
Wait, two foreign bitches help bag up, ain't an Audi, it's a Jag' truck
When we slide, we was masked up, still high from the last pill
Nightmare 'bout the last kill, lane switch in a fast wheel
Pop Perc' pills like a Advil
Run up, flex, new bitch next
She might just bring her cousin, we might just make a mess
That bitch a beast, so how we gotta deal and still play the block?
Finest of the steak and tater tots
Snatch up and slay a thot
Bunch a wild niggas don't play a lot
Cops on the phone, don't say a lot

Beast, beast
Finally found the dog in me
Finally got off the leash
Why they keep callin' me?
Beast, beast
Finally found the dog in me
Finally got off the leash
Why they keep callin' me?
