

Don't Change

Tsu Surf

Don't you change on me
Don't you change on me
Now don't you change on me
(Beautiful, don't you change
I'm gon' always hold it down, so don't you...)
Don't you change

I look over and she sleepin', shit I ain't supposed to be creepin'
This the weekend and I'm fiendin', BlackBerry keep beepin'
Like, "I need you now daddy, are you around daddy?
I know she there but if you comin' text... #daddy"
Before I know it, got my Timbs and my sweats on Keys grabbed, blunt rolled, pedal gettin' pressed on
In this relationship so I ain't supposed to want that Backshot stupid, shit, shawty got that comeback
Super wet, dumb fat, keep her thing so tight
Love my wifey to death, these wrongs feel so right
Now back to the situation
We both soakin' wet, she moanin' from the penetration
So bittersweet, she beautifully ugly
No strings attached, she screamin' that she love me
Plus she tell me that it's mine when she fuck me
It's eatin' out my insides, my girlfriend trust me

I love the way you put it down on me
So don't you change, you change
I'm gon' always hold it down
So you don't ever have to worry about a thing
Fuck them groupies, they gon' get lonely
So please don't you change on me, no

On repeat: the iPod, Hov and B
If it ain't workin' with your girls then you home with me
I do that thing that you like, then you moan for me
Why I'm trickin' in these streets when home is free?
Matter fact, I don't know what made me trip like that
Or why I'd dip like that and do some shit like that
It was the birds chirpin', nigga he ain't hit right back
I was just fuckin' them girls, I was gon' get right back
I know it sound familiar, but that couldn't have been realer
Nightmares like dreams, that temptation's a killer
But they ain't gettin' vacations in the villa
Pokin' O's for the winter, three quarters chinchilla
Nah, who I'm kiddin'? That won't make you forget it
Keep it cute, play your part, girl, I promise I'ma fix it
Got a little older, made a couple things different
I don't regret shit, but I wish I never did it

I love the way you put it down on me
So don't you change, you change
I'm gon' always hold it down
So you don't ever have to worry about a thing
Fuck them groupies, they gon' get lonely
So please don't you change on me, no

To whom it may concern, it was a past time
Trey Songz: I said our last time was the last time

I mean I'm sorry and these words don't mean nothin'
I'm gettin' bread so the birds gon' keep cluckin'
Tried to keep it on the low and tried to guide line it
But what if you was wife and she was sidelinin'?
Exactly, so let's move on
And subtract it, why make two wrongs?
You had a man, I got a girl, we had rules
And the game was real different back when you had a dude
Miss the last time, I enjoyed it
Shit, I still do, but you're poison
Some things we'll probably never know
But I heard a negative could make it better yo
Shit, I'm a wild boy, you'll find better though
Shit, I pray you understand, I gotta let it go

I love the way you put it down on me
So don't you change, you change
I'm gon' always hold it down
So you don't ever have to worry about a thing
Fuck them groupies, they gon' get lonely
So please don't you change on me, no
