You ever wish it was but know it wasn't
I could still smell your covers
I can still hear us fucking (uh)
Still hear you try to tell me that you love it
Try do you like you dirty hear you tell me that you cumming (uh)
We go straight to sleep sometimes lay in peace
Real nigga first I won't say you got to wait for me
Roll another backwood watch you while you lay and think
Stole a nigga heart I hate a liar and I hate a thief
Backshots thinking about your backshots
Better be your screensaver better be your backdrop
Had you out in Puerto Rico had you in the trap spots
Hit you on a nigga face I know where your jackpot
Praying they don't come and get me
I know when you happy I know when you getting stubborn with me
All in your eyes I can see when you ain't fucking with me
Look me in my face
She talking about shit do a hundred with me
I don't need all of that I just need you to be a hundred with me
Hope you understand though
I don't get it but my Nana said that it's a plan though
This is every moment once you start singing that Soprano
I been on the cloud
Eventually we all land though
Only get the coldest
Watch out for the suckers
You stay loyal and you stay focus
Nothing last forever I'm just giving out the notice
Never let them hoe us you know my body is hocus pocus
Only step with ten toes...

All I need you to pray for me
Time don't wait for nobody then don't wait for me
I feel like I been up for years I can't wait to sleep
Baby we don't got to fuck baby you could just lay with me
All I need you to pray for me
(Baby we ain't gotta fuck...)
Time don't wait for nobody then don't wait for me
I feel like I been up for years I can't wait to sleep
Baby we don't got to fuck baby you could just lay with me
(Baby we ain't gotta fuck...)

I don't even know what to say to you
I been crying straight for a day or two
Laying here alone brick wishing I could lay with you
Playing with myself reminiscing about when I played with you
Stressing getting skinny see I told you that I would wait for you
First the combination I was safe with you
When you gone I'm lost like damn what would bae would do?
I told you I was pregnant now you tryna to kill me Rae Carruth
The closest I been to Christian is dior but every night I pray for you
Backshots thinking about the backshots
Got footage on my iPhone of me getting giving you laptop
Last time we fucked was before they snatched you out the stash house

First time in my little car yeah I gave you the matchbox
I can't believe they came and got you
When everybody changed I'll always feel the same about you
I love you I don't care what haters got to say about you
I play a lot of games but you know I don't play about you
I just pray about you...

All I need you to pray for me
Time don't wait for nobody then don't wait for me
I feel like I've been up for years I can't wait to sleep
Baby we don't got to fuck baby you could just lay with me
All I need you to pray for me
(Baby we ain't gotta fuck...)
Time don't wait for nobody then don't wait for me
I feel like I've been up for years I can't wait to sleep
Baby we don't got to fuck baby you could just lay with me
(Baby we ain't gotta fuck...)
