

What If

Tsu Surf

A wave, we just tryna find a wave right now
This surfin' shit is about currency, ya mean?
I know it's a lot of waves out there
You gotta catch the right one though
Every wave ain't the wave
They tryna say I wanna go mainstream
As long as I go platinum in the trenches nigga

What if they don't love you like they say they do?
What if you ain't make it through?
Reaper out here snatchin' souls, your life could get taken too
What if he ain't make a statement, signed on that paper too?
What if she a opposite, you out here tryna make a boo?
What if you ain't learn from them lessons?
What if they catch us before we catch 'em?
What if he finally fold from that depression?
What if the feds watchin' all his flexin'?
What if the homie fold when they test him?

What if I don't make it with this rhymin' shit?
What if you don't wake up tomorrow, it's just your time and shit?
What if you fuck her and just fuck her and then the condom rip?
Babies, AIDS, feelings, all kinda shit
What if you healthy but your momma sick?
What if you got your 9 they pull up with a comma clip?
What if they can't bury you in all that designer shit?
What if my ex woulda trust me?
What if they woulda touched me?
What if Durant would've never left Russ
She gotta strip, that baby need summer clothes
What if cops box us in movin' with these motherlodes?
What if you get the cage? What if it's a grave?
Or what if you don't see your baby walk across that stage?

What if they don't love you like they say they do?
What if you ain't make it through?
Reaper out here snatchin' souls, your life could get taken too
What if he ain't make a statement, signed on that paper too?
What if she a opposite, you out here tryna make a boo?
What if you ain't learn from them lessons?
What if they catch us before we catch 'em?
What if he finally fold from that depression?
What if the feds watchin' all his flexin'?
What if the homie fold when they test him?

What if the bullet that hit my arm hit my neck?
What if she'll fake like she love you for a check?
What if he lied, he put loyalty on the set?
What if he innocent, bystander meet his death?
What if that public defender really think you guilty?
What if you don't clean up your mess, get did filthy?
What if they don't feel this? What if it's a hit?
What if your day ones'll change, be a snitch?
What if he your downfall? What if it's a bitch?
What if prices double up everywhere for bricks?
What if they be frontin'? Man what if they ain't mean that?
What if you ever gotta question like where your team at?

What if they don't love you like they say they do?
What if you ain't make it through?
Reaper out here snatchin' souls, your life could get taken too
What if he ain't make a statement, signed on that paper too?
What if she a opposite, you out here tryna make a boo?
What if you ain't learn from them lessons?
What if they catch us before we catch 'em?
What if he finally fold from that depression?
What if the feds watchin' all his flexin'?
What if the homie fold when they test him?
