

Chronic Hypersomnia

Tub Ring

See, the rain still falls
(Nobody thanks us)
And the air you breathe
(Nobody thanks us)
And the child knows
(Wonders if there's anybody)
That he will grow
(Wonders if there's anybody)
So powerful
(Wonders if there's anybody)
So powerful
(Wonders if there's anybody)

There!
If you have covered your bases
Then where is the fear
In showing your faces?
The timing is perfect
What you sell, we're buying
But it's up to you to provide a messiah

So the day still comes
(Nobody thanks us)
And the people breed
(Nobody thanks us)
And the mother knows
(Wonders if there's anybody)
That he will grow
(Wonders if there's anybody)
So powerful
(Wonders if there's anybody)
So powerful
(Wonders if there's anybody)

There!
If you have covered your bases
Then where is the fear
In showing your faces?
The timing is perfect
What you sell, we're buying
But it's up to you to provide a messiah

Nobody thanks us
Nobody thanks us

God rest them all
God rest them all
God rest them all
God rest them all
God rest them all
God rest them all
God rest them all
God rest them all
