

Unappealing

Tub Ring

Where's the pride lost
In talking to me
No harm done in that
As far as I can see

Chin help up
To the people I meet
And all I want is
Something that's concrete

Obsessive reachings
And now it's dead to me
Drunken informal
And now I'm dead to me

I'm so expendable
Why does this have to be
Stagnant embrace
And now you're dead to me

And I never really was that strong
And I guess you knew it all along
I think I'll wait for your response
Unappealing debutante

I might seem bold
But I have nothing to hide
My personas good
But not the body I'm inside

I've just accepted
What is true
That I'm so unappealing to you

Hate the fact that
Things are this way
Odor of cologne
Smell of minty breath spray

Had myself a blast
As I sat and waited
Guess sitting home alone
Is very underrated

Obsessive reachings
And now it's dead to me
Drunken informal
And now I'm dead to me

I'm so expendable
Why does this have to be
Stagnant embrace
And now you're dead to me

And I never really was that strong
And I guess you knew it all along
I think I'll wait for your response

Unappealing debutante

I might seem bold
My personas good
But not the body I'm inside

I've just accepted
What is true that
That I'm so unappealing to you

I got myself some pocket change
And I'm going out
To have me some fun tonight

I just know there's got to be
A million hip things for me to
Do without you

Obsessive reachings
And now it's dead to me
Drunken informal
And now I'm dead to me

I'm so expendable
Why does this have to be
Stagnant embrace
