

Remember Me

Tucker Beathard

I've tried to outrun
Being my old man's son
I had the hammer down
I wasn't messin' around
I couldn't get it done
He's stuck on me
Like a burned on brand
Yeah, some things I just am...

I'm the one that couldn't pull my weight
Said "to hell" with the deal we made
Now I'm back again
Do you remember me?...
Still lost 'cause I can't find found
One more hand
Don't fold now
Please
Remember, remember
Remember me...

I've tried to keep head
Short fused rebel kid
Yeah, I hopped that train goin' with the grain but I fell off quick
Bein' out of that box
Is way out of my hands
Yeah, some things I just am...

I'm the one that couldn't pull my weight
Said "to hell" with the deal we made
Now I'm back again
Do you remember me?...
Still lost 'cause I can't find found
One more hand
Don't fold now
Please
Remember, remember
Remember me...

Skippin' class, learnin' fast
All them ins and outs
Yeah, we got them doctor's notes down
Road trippin' to panama
Couldn't wait to graduate
Lookin' back we had it all
Highschool days
I still feel the sweat of my homecoming queen wrapped up in my arms
Highschool days they blow away like marlboro smoke behind jimmy's barn
Where the teachers bore me, fightin' authority
They were short 4 years long
Makes you hate em' when you're in em'
And miss em' when they're gone

Yeah I ain't gonna tell ya what it is or what it ain't
I'll let your mind paint the picture that it wants to paint

I'm the one that couldn't pull my weight
Said "to hell" with the deal we made

Now I'm back again
Do you remember me?...

Don't have to make sense
It is what it is
Yeah, last time I checked
Hell I'm just a kid...

Still lost 'cause I can't find found
One more hand
Don't fold now
Please
Remember, remember
Remember me...
