

Break First

Tucker Wetmore

I drank last night, I stayed too long
We got into a fight, she's on her last straw
I said I changed, she rolled her eyes
She said I said that last time

And I kinda want another kiss, wouldn't mind another beer
And I'm in a tight spot, don't know where it goes from here

Will she put me in a church, will I put her in a bar?
Will she put me back together, will I tear that girl apart?
It's only one of two things, will she want my last name?
Or wanna drag it through the dirt?
Will I make her mine or just make her miss me?
Right now, it's lookin' like 50-50
If it's gonna be my habits or that heart of hers
Which one is gonna break first?

She wants to stay in, I wanna go out
I know what happens if I go downtown
She's gonna get pissed, I guess that's true
Can't have my whiskey and drink it too

Will she put me in a church, will I put her in a bar?
Will she put me back together, will I tear that girl apart?
It's only one of two things, will she want my last name?
Or wanna drag it through the dirt?
Will I make her mine or just make her miss me?
Right now, it's lookin' it's lookin' like 50-50
If it's gonna be my habits or that heart of hers
Which one is gonna break first?

And I kinda want another kiss, wouldn't mind another beer
And I'm in a tight spot, don't know where it goes from here

Will she put me in a church, will I put her in a bar?
Will she put me back together, will I tear that girl apart?
