

Down

Tujamo

I know that I'm not always good at letting go
I'd rather do it your way, it's hard for me
I know that I don't laugh at all the jokes you make
But I swear that I just need you to keep holding on Maybe it's not easy to love me
But maybe if you leave me I'll be Holding onto memories, the lives we never had
Look at me, I'm lost in my mind again

Woo-hoo, you-hoo
Even love me when I'm feeling low
Woo-hoo, you-hoo
See the worst in me and don't let go
You're always beside me, right there to guide me
When I'm down, down, down, down, down
Woo-hoo, you-hoo
When I'm down, down, down, down, down

When I'm down, down, down, down, down
When I'm down, down, down, down, down
When I'm down, down, down, down, down
When I'm down, down, down, down, down

Don't know why you staying low but I'm so glad you do
I promise I will change, all the clouds will fade away
And maybe it's not easy to love me
But baby if you need me, I'll be Holding onto thoughts, all the life that we could have
Look at me, I'm lost in my mind again

Woo-hoo, you-hoo
Even love me when I'm feeling low
Woo-hoo, you-hoo
See the worst in me and don't let go
You're always beside me, right there to guide me
When I'm down, down, down, down, down
Woo-hoo, you-hoo
When I'm down, down, down, down, down

When I'm down, down, down, down, down
When I'm down, down, down, down, down
When I'm down, down, down, down, down
When I'm down, down, down, down, down

Woo-hoo, you-hoo
When I'm down, down, down, down, down
