

Never Look Back

tUnE-yArDs

Watch me as I punch you in the eye
Watch me as I punch you in the other eye
Nothing here that wasn't advertised
Didn't you agree to be homogenized

But then he said
"One, two, three and I never look back"
But I could tell he had his fingers crossed behind his back
He said
"One, two, three and I never look back"
But I could tell that he was telling a lie
And I see you
You

Watch me as I punch you in the eye
Watch me sucker punch you right between the eyes
It's all going down like I fantasized
Wait right here the answers will materialize

Oh but then he said
"One, two, three and I never look back"
But I could tell he had his fingers crossed behind his back
He said
"One, two, three and I never look back"
But I could tell that he was telling a lie

Oh but he said
"One, two, three and I never look back"
But I could tell he had his fingers crossed behind his back
He said
"One, two, three and I never look back"
But I could tell that he was telling a lie

And I see you
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
And I see you
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
And I see you
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
Four, three, two, now
