

Swarm

tUnE-yArDs

Now, now, now, now, now, and now again
Now, now, now, like we knew way back when
I don't feel, or I don't feel so well
Sick from living through this fiery hell

Turn away from those who hate you
Turn to meet the ones that keep you warm
Turn away the absent future
Come away, and we'll become the swarm

Now, now, now, now, now, and now once more
Born to fight, but who's your fighting for?

Turn away from those who hate you
Turn to meet the ones that keep you warm
Turn away the absent future
Turn away, and we'll become the swarm

Turn away from all that hates you
Turn to meet the ones that keep you warm
Turn away the absent future
Come away, and we will join the swarm

Promise not to be selfish
Practice now, 'cause you'll need it
Promise you can be changed
Promise you'll rearrange your brain
For the next in line

Promise not to be selfish
Practice now, 'cause you'll need it
Promise you will try to be changed
Strange, to rearrange for the lives
Of the next in line

Promise not to be selfish
Practice now, 'cause you'll need it
Promise you can be changed
Promise you'll rearrange your brain
For the next in line

Promise not to be selfish
Practice now, 'cause you'll need it
Promise you will try to be changed
Strange, to rearrange for the lives
Of the next in line
Now, now, now, now, now

Turn away from those who hate you
Turn away from those who hate you
Turn away from those who hate you
Turn to meet the ones that keep you warm
Turn away the absent future
Turn away, and we'll become the swarm
