Don't Look Down or Back

Tunng

She rises with the sun
Awakens and undone
The postman passes by
And after thoughts reply, they do
The TV flickers restless
The hours drain away
Blood rushing like a stream
Lie detectors stray, away
Seratonin undertaker
Flooding through her brain
Hits the circuit breaker
The choices will remain
Don't look down or back
All trees have carved a track
On the souls of all before, Oh
Saving for a rainy day
Banks threaten to foreclose
The colour slide to the grey
And nestles in her toes
She rises with the sun
Awakens and undone
The postman passes by
And after thoughts reply, they do
Seratonin undertaker
Is flooding through her brain
And hits the circuit breaker
The choices will remain
