

Sashimi

Tunng

Escaping through plastic
White beads into the mixture
Expensive, delightful
It's true the unproud

Adventures in your wake
Black blood is pouring into
Discomforts, shortcomings
That made you kill them

So come in and lie down
Lift your feet up off the floor
Sashimi, sashimi

Escaping through plastic
White noise into the next room
Her touch is elusive
It ties us all down

We're moving, ecstatic
She drops like sweet surrender
We're falling through atoms
She's so understanding

So come in and lie down
Lift your feet up off the floor
Sashimi, sashimi, sashimi

Don't lead her astray
Don't lead her astray
Don't lead her astray
Don't lead her astray
Sashimi, sashimi, sashimi

Don't lead her astray
Sashimi, sashimi, sashimi
Don't lead her astray
Sashimi, sashimi, sashimi

Don't lead her astray
Sashimi, sashimi, sashimi
Don't lead her astray
Sashimi, sashimi, sashimi

Escaping through plastic
White beads into the mixture
Expensive, delightful
