

Diet-Coke

TV Girl

Out on the porch so quiet
Nothing on the tv tonight
Nowhere in the world to go
We went to see the midnight show

Sticky floors and torn-up seats
In the lobby you got something to eat
Lights go down, the screen starts to glow
You came back with a diet coke

Oh oh oh...

You missed the entire first scene
By the credits we were both asleep
I was lying next to you in a dream
The lights came on and someone told us to leave

Oh oh oh...

Your house was as dark as the room
Not a single word was spoke
3am and I'm all alone
Just a memory and a diet coke

Your house was as dark as the room
Not a single word was spoke
3am and I'm all alone
Just a memory and a diet coke

Oh oh oh...
