

Girls Like Me

TV Girl

They got a name for girls like me
They got a name, but no one wants to say it
They write songs about girls like me
When I'm around, no one wants to play em
They'd sell their soul for a girl like me
And wonder why

They resent a girl like me cause I

Don't even have to try
Girls like me
Don't even have to try
Woah oh oh oh oh

It takes a nation of angry young men
And adolescent pretention
They scream poems at the top of their pens
As if it could get my attention
It takes more for a mythical beast like me
To die

They think its easy for a girl like me cause I

Don't even have to try
Girls like me
Don't even have to try
Woah oh oh oh oh

Girls like me
Girls like me
Don't even have to try
Woah oh oh oh oh
Girls like me
Girls like me
Don't even have to try
Woah oh oh oh oh
