

I'm Someone Else

TV Girl

Dance me over, to the dark side of the gym
The drinks have all been emptied, the lights have all been dimmed

That's what you wanted, to rip him limb to limb

I'll be fine, just worry about yourself

Cause I'm someone else

I'm someone else

I'm someone else

I'm someone else

Why even bother with that sympathetic stuff?

The confetti's decomposing, the band is packing up

And then it ends and leaves us left us deeply unimpressed

That can't be good for someone's mental health

But I'm someone else

I'm someone else

I'm someone else

I'm someone else

I need some time to prepare for the big investigation

I need an alibi to confront every potential complication

I'll need to get a haircut and buy some brand new clothes fancy shoes

And keep that smile plastered on

What else could I do

But rely on those excuses

That have got me through the years?

I'll never be convicted

By a of the jury of my peers

Ooh ooh ah

Ooh ooh ah
