

The Sweet Life

TV Girl

For a little taste, I would wait forever
Just to see your face a second time
But can I taste the sweet life
Can I stay up all night (nah-nah)
Can I run the red light (nah-nah)
Yeah, I change my mind (nah-nah)
Could I wait forever, if it makes it better
Oh, I would like to let it go

You're just so alright
You're just so alright -
Ah

I could never learn to taste the good life (nah-nah)
Never had enough to kiss you good night (nah-nah)
Take it on the head and never get high (nah-nah)
Waiting on the weekend and watch it go by (nah-nah)
I could never learn to taste the good life (nah-nah)
Everyone you meets a good high (nah-nah)
Couple years asleep, a couple more times (nah-nah)
Get up off your seat and reach until it's gone (nah-nah)

Ah-
You're just so alright
You're just so alright -
Ah
You're just so alright
You're just so alright -
Ah
You're just so alright
You're just so alright -
Ah
