You guide me like
An obedient butler, "This way"
You light flames in the corridor
"Red to the right," you said
A broken revolving door
Bird of paradise flower on the floor

A tarantula creeps across the silk wall
You turn and laugh

Where're you going? baby
Wait on the elm rocking chair
Don't open your eyes to the count of seven

Pret un... the dewdrops of night on your neck
To the extent that you lost your voice
Deux... from the mechanical treets
To between your fingers
Trois... the spider web which entangles and entangles
Like this, continuously
The sandclock which started to go backwards to 9095

Echoing down the long hallway
"Have we met somewhere before?"
"Blue is to the left of red"
Angel feathers rusted together
The chimera blindfolds me
With yesterday's discarded dreams
Its hands rustling like before

Who are you? Tell me baby
You won't show it to anyone
Even if you put your hands on the mirror

Et quatre... That musky fragrance on your back
The sound of a hot breath
Cinq... suspended in the blank space of your eyes
If you allow your pupil
Six... if your tears are reviving
Then somehow
The remains which slowly come to live in 9095

Don't look for anything again, because I'm near you
If you open your eyes completely, you can't turn back
If that's alright, gently (open your eyes)

Pret un... the dewdrops of night on your neck
To the extent that you lost your voice
Deux... from the mechanical treets
To between your fingers
Trois... the spider web which entangles and entangles
Like this, continuously
The sandclock which started to go backwards to 9095
Et quatre... That musky fragrance on your back
Cinq... suspended in blank space of your eyes
Six... if your tears are reviving... then somehow
The remains which slowly come to live in 9095
