During my past childhood, I dreamt a beautiful dream
About riding a balloon and flying
If a yellow balloon flies in the sky
My heart remembers beautiful memories

My dream as a child was to ride a yellow balloon
And fly high into the sky
I forgot about that small dream and lived till now
Because I grew up too much
But when I'm miserable
I want to run around and play like a child
Filling a balloon full of my small dreams

During my past childhood, I dreamt a beautiful dream
About riding a balloon and flying
If a yellow balloon flies in the sky
My heart remembers beautiful memories

I can't understand why tears come out
When I look at the sky
I wonder why you forgot the tiny childhood
When you become an adult
At times, I too want to just
Fly high into the sky
With my forgotten dreams and memories

During my past childhood, I dreamt a beautiful dream
About riding a balloon and flying
If a yellow balloon flies in the sky
My heart remembers beautiful memories

La la la la la
Though time passes
La la la la la

Though I forgot
La la la la la
Will it be possible to contain it in a yellow balloon?

During my past childhood, I dreamt a beautiful dream
About riding a balloon and flying
If a yellow balloon flies in the sky
My heart remembers beautiful memories
