Oh oh
Oh oh

I wanna know, it's hide & seek
Subtle crazy uneasiness
This labyrinth is the reality, let's begin
Let's play, ready or not?

Oh oh

The conflict is doublespeak
One lie leads to another lie
A sand castle being destroyed by winds
Completely all at once without making any noise

Oh oh

The truth is, we hide a knife behind our backs
As we approach closer, dull lights start to shine out of control

Where is love? even you will be hurt even more
I will protect you, just tell me everything that you know
I still want to believe even it's a
Fading dream in this bitter era
I will find it if you are with me, oh

I am aware the stealth game
Did you set it secretly from me?
The more the light shines brighter
The more the shadow behind the brightness reveals itself

Oh oh

Pick up the pieces of the puzzles
That are lost
Even though the world you are seeking
Is not something that you wanted to know

Oh oh

I will accept everything and hold them tight to myself
To the next stage (place) that will evolve from there

Even though its far away from here, even though its really difficult
I have made up my mind and will stick to it, find out
Today to tomorrow, you are guided
Until you reach there by feeling your way along
I will keep seeking, if you are with me, oh

Oh oh
Oh oh

The truth is in your heart, hiding tears behind
The glass eyes that are afraid of being shuttered

Where is love? even you will be hurt even more
I will protect you, just tell me everything as it is
I still want to believe even it's a
Fading dream in this bitter era

Even though its far away from here, even though its really difficult
I have made up my mind and will stick to it, find out
Today to tomorrow, you are guided
Until you reach there by feeling your way along
I will keep seeking, if you are with me, oh
