How long and
Deep can I love you?
Even though I let go of your finger now
Please say that we can meet each other again

I still love you

Yesterday and the day before yesterday, far into the night
I was thinking about you, what a fool I was
Even though you are right in front of me, or far away
My heart is, always with you

Should it be correct
To keep it to myself?
Everyone has his own place
I know

How long and deep

Can I love you?
Even though I let go of your finger now
Please say that we can meet each other again

When I was happy, or sad
I was always thinking about you, what a fool I was
Time flows away
I know

I'm deeply in love
Even though my love is hopeless
I get lonely
Everytime I hold you tight

Your scent, your figure
Fill the emptiness inside me
For once
I want to feel your skin

How long and
Deep can I love you?
Even though I let go of your finger now
Please say that we can meet each other again

Even though I
Just want to love you
The person that can make happy is not me
(That can make me happy)
I really know

I (Oh yeah)
Just love you
