Always be my love by my tears
Girl you have to know how much I loved you
Still just can't stop thinking of you

Without you I laugh and cry alone
Without you in this life
Look at me now, with another girl
Sharing my stories about you

The sound of her laugh makes me think of you
Including the way she laughs, woo
Her fidgeting even reminds me of you
I guess I still haven't let you go

Even though I didn't forget you, I still look for another love
Now I want to let you go, so I force myself to
I wait for unspoken promises, they mean so much to me
If it means that I can feel you
I can wait for you forever

If I loved someone else
Then I know I can forget you
Nevertheless
But if I erase everything about you
I won't have anything to remember you by

That child isn't by your side, he can't love you
I'm aware that I can't touch you, woo
Even if I can't dream or love again
You're the reason that I live

Even though I didn't forget you, I still look for another love
Now I want to let you go, so I force myself to
I wait for unspoken promises, they mean so much to me
If it means that I can feel you
I can wait for you forever

No matter how much I want to forget you
My body and mind stays still
I want to turn back time
And make you my girl for eternity
(Destiny) since I wasn't able to have
All of you in my heart
I'll try to fill it up
With another girl
Tiny but maybe wasn't my responsibility
My guarantee was instant of lovely fantasy
It always happens to our lives
No advice couldn't stop the time, Jesus Christ

I don't know if I can love anyone again
Return to your place whenever you want to Love will continue from where you left it

Even though I didn't forget you, I still look for another love
Now I want to let you go, so I force myself to
I wait for unspoken promises, they mean so much to me
If I could only feel you, then I would, forever for you

Even though I didn't forget you, I still look for another love
Now I want to let you go, so I force myself to
I wait for unspoken promises, they mean so much to me
If it means that I can feel you
I can wait for you forever
