This time is the time when we go beyond the 'now'
This hand looks small, but it is not
The door opened and allowed light to shine through
And the sound of a beginning resonates

"I cannot go anywhere"
The 'me' reflected in the mirror
Who said that like this
He looked like a person I didn't know

I don't want to erase it
I want it strong, forever, forever

In that heart of yours, make a change
I heard that, make a change

This time is the time when we go beyond the 'now'
This hand looks small, but it is not
The door opened and allowed light to shine through
And the sound of a beginning resonates

"What are you saying?", "when I'm like this?"
Search for such challenges
Drawing a picture then throwing it away
Because this isn't who you are

Without writing anything
Always and forever, forever

In that heart of yours, make a change
I heard that, make a change

This is the time when we go beyond the 'now' without hesitation
This heart looks like it's trembling, but it is not
The door opened and allowed light to shine through
And the sound of a beginning resonates

It won't stop resonating, forever

It will continue in my heart
Attach yourself to the 'now' that belongs to you only
