I got you under my skin

At the start, you were sweetly, naturally attracted to me

You stepped up and told me it would forever be like that

All the possibilities, opened up

What is love? what! it's now meant by the red ocean

I'm breakin' my rules again, you know it's getting boring?

Even if you're hurt a bit, it's okay

You want me

You've fallen for me

You're crazy over me

You can't escape

I got you under my skin

You want me

You've fallen for me

You're crazy over me

You're my slave

I got you under my skin

The piercing stare that burrows into your head

It's not me, my still chrome heart

It's the road you chose

Millions of my crystals are flowing through your blood vessels

Finally it has started, the end of my metamorphosis

Isn't this also love?

You want me

You've fallen for me
You're crazy over me
You can't escape
I got you under my skin

You want me
You've fallen for me
You're crazy over me
You're my slave
I got you under my skin

Together with one time's kiss
The day is fresh, a strong pull
The second kiss
Your heart felt hot and about to explode
Yeah I got you
You know you got it
Yeah oh

Come on, come on
Come on, come on
I got you under my skin

In your dreams
I control you
With my magic spells
You're once again yearning
I got you under my skin

My devil's ride
There's no more room for breathing
If that happens
How will it be to enjoy it now
I got you under my skin
(You, oh under my skin)

You want me
You've fallen for me
You're crazy over me
You can't escape

You want me
You've fallen for me
You're crazy over me
You're my slave
I got you under my skin
