Baby come again I feel you
Listen to my heart I love you
My heart so I know you want me
Baby stay with me I miss you

Baby come again, I feel you
Listen to my heart, I love you
My heart, so I know you want me
Baby stay with me, I miss you

On the sidewalk on the other side of the street, I saw it
The image of you
Our time when we stayed at the same place
Suddenly started to move

Wo oh oh, I chased after you
Wo oh oh, I ran
Wo oh oh, into a crowd of people
You led me, keeping your distance from me

If I hadn't met you that day
I wouldn't know this emotion
Even though we passed each other
On the street corner and it ended
Even now I can't forget
Your fingers, your hair, your tears
I remembered all the pain from
That time, don't let me down

Baby come again I feel you
Listen to my heart I love you
My heart so I know you want me
Baby stay with me I miss you

During that time we were so caught up in ourselves
And we couldn't be honest
But now I can say I won't lose you
Believe me

Wo oh oh, that name
Wo oh oh, I called
Wo oh oh, in this place
I'll hold you one more time

Even if you are
Alone now
I will protect you anywhere
I want to look at you
The busy street's afternoon
Will hold us together
This emotion comes to me
I want to give it to you, I take you back

If you turn around with your eyes
I want to laugh, don't change
Oh I miss you

If I hadn't met you that day
I wouldn't know this emotion
Even though we passed each other
On the street corner and it ended
Even now I can't forget
Your fingers, your hair, your tears
I remembered all the pain from
That time, don't let me down

Even if you are
Alone now
I will protect you anywhere
I want to look at you
The busy street's afternoon
Will hold us together
This emotion comes to me
I want to give it to you, I take you back

Baby come again I feel you
Listen to my heart I love you
My heart so I know you want me
Baby stay with me I miss you
