shiny day darling carphone feel so right

you belong to me

silver moon crescent night telephone

you belong to me Always

oooooooooooo oooooooooo oooooooooooo you belong to me oooooooooooo ooooooooooooo oooooooooooo oo oooooo

The sky is stretched out in blue, shiny day
On this Sunday afternoon darling, walking and holding your hand Talking one at a time on the carphone
With the same rhythm and flow, feel so right

I wonder if I can be skillful in loving you More than anyone in the world

I will never loose you, only look at me
Forever in my arms, you belong to me
On the sunny days, and the rainy days as well, I'll stay by your side and protect you
The two of us get through it, I promise, I will grant your wish

Oh the nights when I can't sleep I see a silver moon
I wonder if the you right now can see the same thing, crescent night
I want to hear your voice so, telephone,
But the truth is I want to go meet with you

The future where I can be with you everyday Soon... believe in it

There are more things I can do, I can love you more Laughing and being in my arms, you belong to me
On the days of hope, and on the days with anxiety too, I will stay by your side and protect you Always, I will hold tightly this important promise

I will never loose you, only look at me
Forever in my arms, you belong to me
On the sunny days, and the rainy days as well, I'll stay by your side and protect you
The two of us get through it, I promise, I will grant your wish
