Reboot, reboot
Alright, we stop haunted world

Unnoticed
Corpses are wandering the world
How come?
The colour of solitude

Dreaming and forgetting, within the virtual reality
What are you looking for with such vacant eyes?
It's a haunted world, it's a haunted mind
Do you not know the feeling which makes the heart tremble?

Go on go on together
I won't do it alone forever
The story and the time to move
Now is the time, call your name

Reboot, revitalized, repeatedly awakened
Reboot, I've chosen to decide and create the future with my own hands
A life that belongs to no one
I'll preposterously go all out (so) get down
As if life would end today, reboot
As if I encounter life tomorrow, reboot, reboot
Changing the game should be possible
With you, now, reboot

Trapped
The virus spreads
Before you notice it
(I) stop resisting

But if I get up even once, for the sake of something
At that time, won't fate change
It's a haunted world, it's a haunted mind
I want to find the meaning of everyone being born

Go on go on together
Because I'm by your side forever
I won't ever leave you again, I swear
At any time, call my name

Reboot, revitalized, repeatedly awakened
Reboot, I've chosen to decide and create the future with my own hands
A life that belongs to no one
I'll preposterously go all out (so) get down
As if life would end today, reboot
As if I encounter life tomorrow, reboot, reboot
